

Fulfill a dream of a lifetime: visit and paint in San Antonin Noble Val with artist and instructor, Pat Spano.

Imagine days full of time to create and relax within this beautiful medieval walled villages with origins from the 8th century.

Inspiration is in the air!

Note the bridge over the Aveyron River, an ornate window with vine covered shutters, market day and of course poppies!

Explore and Create!

Enjoy the incredible hospitality of Danny and Christine Broussard in this beautiful, ancient walled city!

On our “artistic adventure, we’ll walk the market on Sunday to meet the native people that live and sell their produce and wares. We’ll explore the surrounding villages and taste the cuisine of SW France! We’ll record our memories in multiple ways that will live forever in our minds and hearts!
